

Choose language
Russia
News
Radio
About us
RSS
RUS ENG CHI GER SPA
FRE ARB HIN ITA other ▼

The Voice of Russia

Schedule
On air now
The Voice of Russia radio website
World
Commentary
Video
History
IFC invites big stars
F1 Grand Prix
Czech tragedy: 20 years later
"New Opera" discovers new stars
Gold of Silver Age

Politics Business Society Military news Sci-Tech Culture Health Sports Oddly enough

The Voice of Russia in New York City on 1430 24/7

- 16:27 Two cyclones come on Australia
- 16:26 Russian panel completes plane crash probe
- 16:21 Moscow gets ready for Epiphany
- 16:08 Vanity does bad job for poachers
- 16:00 Somali pirates attack South Korean vessel
- 15:51 Hundreds gather in north of Moscow
- 15:50 Lech Waleca: Russia deserves praise and acclaim
- 15:47 IAEA inspectors visit Iran
- 15:42 Moscow concerned over Tunisia unrest
- 14:38 World worried by Tunisia violence
- 14:26 Tunisian parliamentary speaker takes over
- 14:23 Jordanians demand PM Samir Al-Rifai's resignation
- 14:16 India mourns victims of stampede
- 14:14 NATO convoy ambushed in Pakistan
- 14:13 All Russian tourists to be flown home from Monastir
- 14:06 Tunisian Prime Minister appeals for calm
- 13:37 FIS Snowboard World Cup to kick off in Spain
- 13:25 Envoys to tour Iran's nuclear sites
- 13:17 Assange supporters rally in Australia
- 11:03 Prime Minister to take over the country

All news →

Multimedia

Photo
Video

Speaker at the helm in Tunisia

According to the Association of Russian Tour Operators, Russian tourists will be flown out of Tunisia on Sunday, January the 16th. Some 200 Russian tourists are currently in the Arab country, where a state coup was staged yesterday. The situation in the capital city Tunis and several provinces remains complicated. The country underwent a number of... →

- Troops brought to Tunisia's capital
- Moscow concerned over Tunisia unrest

START will work only if US observes it, Russian Duma says

Moscow will withdraw from the START treaty if the US, NATO or any of the US's allies deploy antimissile systems which threaten Russia's security. This is the key amendment to the draw law on the treaty's ratification which was adopted by the Russian State Duma in the second reading on Friday. The amendments are caused by a... →

- Russian lawmaker hopes for START ratification this month
- Lavrov lashes out at US amendments to New START treaty

IAC report not to affect Russia-Poland thaw

Certain controversies and the emotional reaction of some Polish politicians to the report presented by the Interstate Aviation Committee (IAC) on the causes and circumstances of President Lech Kaczynski's plane crash near Smolensk in April last year

In Focus

"Russia's amendments on START to be announced"

Burning Point

"Re: situation in Yemen"

In Between

"Beauty and the purse"

One to One

"The blame lies in the cockpit - expert"

Russia Business Report

"Aeroflot posts some very positive figures from 2010"

Out & About

"Russian Christmas. Russian customs and superstitions"

Press Review

"Dot put in Smolensk air crash"

Russia NOW

Investigation of Smolensk crash was thorough

Epiphany Week fest to open in Moscow

Russian wins short track bronze

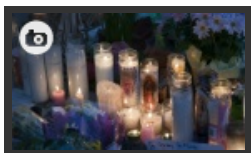

Brazil mudslides death toll approaches 550

Independent Investigative Committee starts work

Tunisia has no president should not hamper the ongoing thaw in relations between Moscow and Warsaw. Both... →

 Poland: ceremonies to bid last farewells to the president

 Poland and Russia united in grief

Red Line - Sudan's separation, extremism in Pakistan and Arizona shooter Jared Lee Loughner are in the focus of our discussion this week

Ekaterina Kudashkina: Welcome to the Voice of Russia and its weekend program – the Red Line. Every weekend we, Sergei Strokan, Mira Salganik and Ekaterina Kudashkina invite you to discuss the most significant events of the week. We are joined by Russian and international experts, politicians, scientists and artists, sharing or opposing our... →

 Shooting rampage in Arizona

 NATO convoy ambushed in Pakistan

"The social age"

"More Olympic News for 2014"

"Nizhny Novgorod- the third Russian capital"

"2010 Summary"

"Orthodox Churches: Gold on Azure"

"ISS – pros and cons"

"Russians still like to build things"

"Culture of Journalism in Russia: hopes and realities"

"It's a love-hate relationship with the great city of Moscow"

"Moscow Gypsy cabs"

CEO calls deal 'beginning of a 50

Tunisia has no president for a second day

Smolensk plane crash: IAC presents final report

Best US actors of the year named

BP and Rosneft in Arctic

2,000 evacuated in Australia

Tunisia to hold elections

Stay inside St. Petersburg

Hillary Clinton's historic fall

Pentagon ready to strike North Korea

Tunisian presidential aircraft lands in Sardinia

Saudi Arabia confirms arrival of president of Tunisia

Romanov Festival in Kostroma

Czech flooding continues

Assange headed

Russia

Presidents of Russia and Poland discuss Smolensk disaster

In a phone conversation the Presidents of Poland and Russia, Dmitry Medvedev, and Bronislaw Komorowski discussed further joint actions surrounding the investigation of the plane crash near Smolensk on April 10th of last year, which killed President Lech Kaczynski, the First Lady and all of the passengers and crew on board the ill fated aircraft. Pr... →

 Poland: ceremonies to bid last farewells to the president

 Poland and Russia united in grief

Russia-US transit shipments agreement submitted to Duma

Russian President Dmitry Medvedev has submitted the Russian-US intergovernmental agreement on transit shipments to Afghanistan to the Russian Parliament's lower house, the State Duma, for consideration. The agreement provides for the air transportation of arms, military hardware, equipment and personnel via Russian territory. Russia has... →

 Pakistan seeks role for Taliban in peace talks

 Foreign Minister sums up Russia's 2010 foreign policy results

Hundreds gather in north of Moscow

World

World worried by Tunisia violence

The international community is worried by the recent developments in Tunisia, with the head of the Federation Council's international affairs committee Mikhail Margelov warning against the prospects of the country sliding back into religious fundamentalism. The EU's foreign policy commissioner Catherine Ashton and the European... →

 Troops brought to Tunisia's capital

 Moscow concerned over Tunisia unrest

Lech Waleca: Russia deserves praise and acclaim

Russia deserves international praise and gratitude for its efforts to investigate the Polish plane crash near Smolensk, Poland's ex-President Lech Waleca told Polish news media on Saturday. Poland, he went on to say, bears huge responsibility for the tragedy. The TU-154 carrying President Lech Kaczynski and top government officials crashed on... →

 Poland and Russia united in grief

 Poland: ceremonies to bid last farewells to the president

Two tropical cyclones approach Australia

Two tropical cyclones, Zelia and Vania, are

Hundreds of Moscow residents took part in ceremonies in the north of Moscow to pay tribute to the memory of a Spartak supporter whose killing triggered mass riots on Manezh Square on December 11th. The rally was attended by about 100 people, mainly students, who said they gathered to honor Yegor Sviridov on the 40th day of his death. Football... →

 Football fans stage rally on Manezh Square to protest Yegor Sviridov's death

 Patriarch warns Russians against ethnic hatred

Criminals hunted in Dagestan

The criminals who blew up a café in the Dagestani city of Khasavyurt are being hunted in the republic. 4 people died, with 11 others are said to have been wounded in the act of terror. According to preliminary reports, a manmade landmine went off in a car that was parked near the crowded café on Friday night. The shockwave swept away... →

 Bomb blast in Dagestan

 Baghdad blasts kill 3

Rosneft, BP to jointly develop Russia's Arctic shelf

The Rosneft Company and Britain's BP Company have reached agreement to jointly develop the Russian Arctic shelf. This came in a statement by the Russian Prime Minister Vladimir Putin. The areas to be developed boast oil reserves of 5 billion tonnes and gas reserves that make up 10 trillion cubic metres. Putin pointed out during his meeting... →

 Situation in the Gulf of Mexico

 BP and Rosneft in Arctic

approaching Australia, which has not yet recovered from the recent flood that's proved most powerful in Australia's history. Rescue services are amid general alarm preparations. Australia's long suffering state of Queensland, which is being overwhelmed by heavy rain for three weeks now... →

 Australia under water

 Brazil. Hundreds dead

Envoys to tour Iran's nuclear sites

Representatives of Egypt, Venezuela, Cuba and Syria are getting a look inside two key Iranian nuclear sites in a tour that Tehran hopes will build support ahead of more talks on its disputed atomic work. Key powers Russia, the US, China, France, Germany and the European Union earlier refused a similar invitation to inspect the country's... →

 Bushehr plant starts operation

 IAEA inspectors visit Iran

Spain asks Germany to extradite Nazi criminal Demjanjuk

The Spanish judiciary has asked Germany to extradite the Nazi criminal Ivan Demjanjuk, who is currently being tried in Berlin. According to investigators, the 90-year old Ukrainian was involved in the extermination of at least 28,000 inmates in the Treblinka and Sobibor concentration camps in his capacity of a warden. According to the Spanish... →

 Demjanjuk trial resumes in Munich

 Demyanyuk trial - warning to defenders of Nazi criminals

Most popular

Assange supporters rally in Australia

FIFA mulls video replay

16th Choice Awards to be announced

Wikipedia eyes 1 bn users

Bolshoi Theater acoustics restored

year project
Deal with BP is part of strategic plan – Sechin

Rosneft and BP sign Arctic Shelf contract

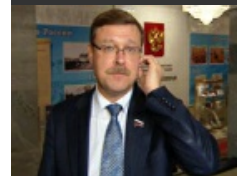

Russian pentathletes head to Cyprus to prepare for London 2012

Views of Samarkand (Uzbekistan)

Russian lawmaker hopes for START ratification this month

for Guantanamo?

100 dead in crowd panic

Bomb blast in Dagestan

89th Brussels Motor Show kicks off

Britain to toughen the use of firearms

Pirates' damage to global economy reaches $12 bln a year

Georgia economy Kyrgyzstan earthquake polish president plane crash Iranian nuclear issue space World War II drug problem European Union Patriarch Kirill oil spill World Cup 2010 Russian-US relations Israel Afghanistan Russian-
Ukrainian relations Abkhazia South Korea South
Ossetia tennis NATO blast Israeli-Palestinian conflict Iraq START Treaty China
Orthodox Church pirates Dmitry Medvedev
Vladimir Putin terrorism Iran North Korea
Sergei Lavrov flood ISS Dagestan Ukraine
Pakistan forest fires US elections football weather Wikileaks Taliban piracy sanctions
Greece

Russia // World // Video // Radio // WRN Real Audio // Search

News // Commentary // History // Archive

